After a 30-minute break, Johnson went out with just a few minutes to run for his second victory of the season. Starting at the pole, the first time Johnson has been on the pole in seven years, he was well off the pace in the early stages and was never able to recover. The drivers entered the late stages looking to dump the fuel and the caution light came out when Johnson tried to go around traffic in turn 1. It was the second DNF of the race for Johnson. “To go for a second win in a row is hard to even think about,” Johnson said. “To do it when the weather is cold is hard to figure out, so I think that’s a good thing for us.” Steve Addington was second, followed by Sam Hornish Jr., and Matt Kenseth. The top four were followed by Kevin Harvick, Carl Edwards, Kyle Busch and Greg Biffle. The drivers entered the white flag lap and 595f342e71
